Please write a brief letter regarding why you recommend the applicant for ministry study in the United States.

What are the applicants talents and/or strengths?

Please share any other information you feel Kentucky Mountain Bible College should be aware of.

Kentucky Mountain Bible College trains international students to prepare them for ministry in their home country. We expect our international students to return to their home country to minister after completing their studies at KMBC. We ask a pastor or other church leader from the applicant's home country for a recommendation of the student for ministry, and an assurance that they have a place of ministry in their home country when they have completed their studies.

- I recommend this applicant.
- I recommend this applicant with reservation. Please comment above.
- I am unable to recommend this applicant. Please comment above.

I, as a representative of a church or ministry with which the above applicant is affiliated, understand and agree with KMBC's purpose for training international students.

I/We recommend the above applicant for ministry training, and are offering him/her a place of ministry with our/my organization upon completion of their studies.
